III. President Update: Jordan Vajda

- Report on meeting with President Drake
 - Affordability: gave advice on how to approach this
 - Updated him on our plan to work with Buckeye Food Alliance
 - Government affairs having a more active role
 - If you have any ideas/talking points that you want to bring up with University President Drake, let Jordan know.
- Buck-I-Experience: please promote

- Similar to “Make-a-Wish”
- IPC and two other student governments have collaborated on this
- Open to undergraduate, graduate, and professional students; for students who are unable to participate in University life due to a chronic or debilitating condition
- Handouts/pamphlets to distribute - applications due by Sunday, October 20th
- Goal Review: building community and involving students in IPC
 - Strengthen internal relationships: allocated $100 to each lead to organize a delegation social
 - Senator Outreach Grant: $200 to put on an activity or program (meet and greet, info session, talk, round table) in addition to Donut Days
 - Outreach to non-senators: people who have run for senator position but did not win -- Deputy Chair positions that provide extra staffing to internal committee chairs
 - Ex. Has worked thus far in IPS and Service committees
 - Deputy Chairs help manage specific projects and help support the senators on the committee
 - If you know of people in your colleges who want to get involved with IPC and student government in general, then let TJ know
- Attendance review: what are our expectations of each other?
 - 10 total meetings
 - Our rules state that a senator that misses 2 meetings in a row or 3 meetings in total, their seat is up for removal → must write a statement → evaluated by the whole Senate
 - Any excused absence that would normally count in an exam would also pass as an excused absence
- Post-meeting social: move to Ethyl & Tank till Woody’s reopens?
